BSPTS C1 Applicant Agreement

I understand that completion of C1 course does not guarantee C1 certification, and that in order to obtain certification, I must pass the BSPTS C1 written exam given at the end of the C1 course. A score of 75% is required for passing. If I fail to pass the C1 exam, I will be required to retake the C1 exam within 3 months, which may be proctored from a remote location. If I fail a second time, I will be required to take the course at full cost before retaking the certification exam.

I understand that BSPTS C1 certification is primarily intended for use in 1:1 individual physical therapy treatment of patients with Adolescent Idiopathic Scoliosis (AIS). It may be applied with limitations in other cases, such as neuromuscular scoliosis. It is not intended for entry level use in adults with painful, degenerative scoliosis, group therapy, or immersion type training, which are best provided after C2 certification (see below). I also agree that I will not use the material to train other physical therapists in treating scoliosis.

I understand that in order to retain my BSPTS C1 certification, I must attend the BSPTS C2 course between 1-3 years following C1. Failure to attend C2 within 1-3 years of C1 will result in loss of my C1 certification. BSPTS C2 certification is required for treatment of adults with degenerative and painful scoliosis, patients post scoliosis spinal surgery, and providing group and immersion type training.

I agree to sign the BSPTS Ethics of Practice Agreement upon completion of the C1 course.
